Wichita Horse and Mule Market,

Brief Mention.

Big week on the new live stock market of the southwest.

P. A. Caton, Peabody, marketed hogs. A. W. Carr, of Carr & Son, Udall, came in with a car of hogs.

The whole of southwestern Kansas should feel proud of the Wichita live stock L. M. McCrocklin, Derby, sent in a car Paugh Bros., Sedgwick, had bogs on the T. E. Gilleland, Winfield, sent in a car of George Friend, Cicero, was on the market with a car of bogs.

The Wichita live stock market will surprise you all within the next year. W. G. Arnett, Anthony, sent in a car of Kilgore & Chiff, Bluff, had a car of hogs at the vards. The Wichita market will please you, Send all your live stock here. Schooling & Jenkins marketed a car of Blakemore & Hearn, Leon, sent in a car of mixed stock D. M. Hutchirson, Haverhill, came in with a car of hogs and cattle. This is his first shipment and he was much pleased H. C. Day, who lived in this city several years ago and now has a large cattle ranch near Duncan, Arizona, was looking over the yards today. He says the live stock market here certainly has a very bright J. S. Yates of Milan, to whom Eldridge & Campbell send the EAGLE as a market report, says: "The Eagle markets are so reliable and correct that I consult them daily and would not know how to buy stock for the market without it." He also says as a newspaper it is second to Mr. Daytor, of the pork packing firm of Slimer & Daytor, Cincinnati, was looking feeling prevailed, prices advanced $60360 over the yards today Was here two years for the different futures, but May held ago. Sees a wonderful improvement in steady the city and that the packing houses are the city and that the packing houses are in pork and prices received 40g45c. At the first class, and that the Wichita Live Stock reduction there was a little more inquiry market will surprise the entire country and prices railied 20g30c and closed com-within a very few years. Mr. D. leaves for home tomorrow morning.

6. C. Stayton, Mayfield, quite an enthn-later a steadier feeling prevailed but tradis a great paper and he depends entirely on her reports of the live stock markets.
